

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
U.S. Professors of the Year Awards Program	The U.S. Professors of the Year program salutes the most outstanding undergraduate instructors in the country—those who excel in teaching and positively influence the lives and careers of students.	http://www.usprofessorsoftheyear.org/	April 15th	All undergraduate teachers in the United States, of any academic rank at any type of undergraduate institution, are eligible for the award.
IIDA Educator of the Year Award	The IIDA Educator of the Year Award was created to recognize and celebrate the outstanding accomplishments and commitment to interior design education by a full-time educator. The recipient of this annual award will receive a $10,000 cash award, sponsored by Milliken, and a complimentary 2015 IIDA Membership.	http://www.iida.org/resources/content/8/0/5/8/documents/EOTY_2014App_FINAL_r	Application available in November	The candidate must be a current full-time instructor with a minimum of five (5) years experience in a post-secondary program of interior design education at any university or recognized school of interior design. Membership in IIDA is recommended, but not required to be eligible for this award. The candidate must be available to accept the award on Sunday, June 8, 2014 at the IIDA Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois.
APLU - Michael P. Malone International Leadership Award	The Commission on International Initiatives (CII) seeks nominations for the Michael P. Malone International Leadership Awards. Dedicated to the memory of Michael P. Malone (1940-1999), the awards were established in 2000 to provide national recognition for a career of outstanding contributions that furthers international education at state and land-grant institutions.	https://www.aplu.org/sslpage.aspx?pid=569	April 15th
Southern Rural Development Bonnie Teater Lifetime Achievement Award	The award is for superior lifetime work by an individual (not a team) who has made an important contribution to the Extension Community Development area.	http://srdc.msstate.edu/funding/bonnieatear/	April 1st	Be currently employed by one of the 29 land-grant universities located in the Southern Rural Development Center region. Serve as an administrator, specialist or agent who has worked in the Extension CD area for at least TEN years at the state, multi-county and/or county levels NOTE: An individual who has retired over the past 12 months and who, at the time of his/her retirement, met the conditions outlined above, is eligible for consideration.
World of Children Award - Humanitarian Award	The Humanitarian Award recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution to children in the areas of social services, education or humanitarian services. Nominee must have created, managed or otherwise supported a sustainable program which has significantly contributed to children's opportunities to BE SAFE, TO LEARN and TO GROW.	http://worldofchildren.org/theaward/awards-we-give/	April 1st	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nominee must do this work over and above their normal employment, OR work for little or no pay. • Nominee must have been doing this work for a minimum of 10 years. • Nominee must have an existing non-profit organization in good standing, which can receive grant funds if Awarded.
World of Children Award - Health Award	The Health Award recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution to children in the fields of health, medicine or the sciences.	http://worldofchildren.org/theaward/awards-we-give/	April 1st	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nominee must have created, managed or otherwise supported a sustainable program which has significantly contributed to the IMPROVED HEALTH of children. • Nominee must do this work over and above their normal employment, OR work for little or no pay. • Nominee must have been doing this work for a minimum of 10 years. • Nominee must have an existing non-profit organization in good standing, which can receive grant funds if Awarded.
Merrick Foundation Teaching Award	Full time faculty members with rank of Assistant Professor or above. Brings to students a better understanding and appreciation of the American economic system.	http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/faculty-a-staff/50-merrick-teaching-award	April 25th	Full time faculty members with rank of Assistant Professor or above. Brings to students a better understanding and appreciation of the American economic system.
Board on Human Sciences - Lifetime Achievement Award	The purpose of the Board on Human Sciences Lifetime Achievement Award is to honor a nationally recognized leader in the Human Sciences who has a significant history of promoting and advancing the Human Sciences in higher education. Nominees for the BoHS Lifetime Achievement Award are individuals who serve or have served in significant faculty and/or administrative roles in higher education. Also, candidates will be individuals who earned recognition for advancing the mission of the Human Sciences and related disciplines in colleges and universities.	http://www.thebohs.org/awards0.aspx	April annually	Leaders who have earned recognition as Human Sciences leaders and administrators are eligible to be nominated for the Board on Human Sciences Lifetime Achievement Award. Each BoHS member unit (college or university) is eligible to submit one nominee each year.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
The Community Engagement Professional of the Year	The Community Engagement Professional of the Year award recognizes one professional from a member campus in Oklahoma who has worked toward the institutionalization of academic service-learning and/or service, created and strived toward a vision of service for his/her campus, promoted higher education as a public good, provided exceptional support to faculty and students, and has been instrumental in forming innovative campus-community partnerships.	http://associations.missouristate.edu/heartland/113061.htm	August 22nd	Professional from a member campus in Oklahoma
Excellence in Community-Based Teaching & Scholarship Award	The Excellence in Community-Based Teaching & Scholarship award recognizes one faculty member from a member campus in Oklahoma who has 1) successfully incorporated service-learning into at least one course with demonstrable outcomes and 2) conducted outstanding research in the field of service-learning and engaged scholarship.	http://associations.missouristate.edu/heartland/113061.htm	August 22nd	outstanding professors in the English-speaking world who are distinguished for their ability to communicate as classroom teachers. Individuals nominated for the award should have a proven record as an extraordinary teacher with a positive, inspiring, and
The Outstanding Community & Campus Collaboration Award	The Outstanding Community & Campus Collaboration award recognizes a sustained campus-community partnership in the state of Oklahoma that demonstrates a true partnership as evidenced by 1) community agency involvement in the development of the course goals and learning outcomes; 2) measurable impact (qualitative and quantitative) on students, faculty and institution; 3) measurable impact on the lives of those served by the community agency; 4) commitment of community agency to student learning.	http://associations.missouristate.edu/heartland/113061.htm	August 22nd	Community-Campus Collaboration
Outreach Faculty Excellence Award	In 1981, University Extension, International & Economic Development (now International Studies & Outreach) created the Faculty Excellence Award to recognize and honor the contributions made by faculty as part of the outreach mission of Oklahoma State University. Additionally, the award enriches the relationship between academic affairs and outreach and helps foster faculty participation in outreach activities. Although each of the college outreach units can honor a faculty member by submitting a nomination, only one faculty member is selected each year.		August 29th	OSU Faculty
DaVinci Fellows Award	This award recognizes creativity, broadly defined, among Oklahoma's higher education faculty. Acting on the premise that creative thought and insight are fundamental components of extraordinary scholarship, invention, teaching, and performance across academic disciplines, the DaVinci Institute seeks nominees whose accomplishments reflect a high degree of innovation and creativity.	http://www.davinciok.org/	December 28th	Nominees whose accomplishments reflect a high degree of innovation and creativity.
Oklahoma Medal for Excellence in Teaching at a Research University	The Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence is a privately-funded statewide nonprofit organization created to recognize and encourage academic excellence in Oklahoma's public schools. Each year an independent committee selects winners of the Oklahoma Medal for Excellence in Teaching and Administration in the following categories: public elementary teaching; public secondary teaching; public regional university and community college teaching; public research university teaching; and public school administration.	http://www.ofe.org/forms/research.pdf	December 3rd	The nominee must currently be a full-time faculty member employed by a public research university in Oklahoma (as those terms are defined by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education) and must have demonstrated excellence in education. Each nominee's performance will be evaluated in terms of his or her own particular teaching environment. The nominee must have a teaching component in his or her current job description.
Academic Awards Program	The Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence is a privately-funded statewide nonprofit organization created to recognize and encourage academic excellence in Oklahoma.	http://www.ofe.org/awards/index.htm	December annually	The nominee must currently be a full-time faculty member employed by a public research university in Oklahoma (as those terms are defined by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education) and must have demonstrated excellence in education. Each nominee's performance will be evaluated in terms of his or her own particular teaching environment. The nominee must have a teaching component in his or her current job description.
Eminent Faculty Award	To honor one faculty member each year who has made sustained contributions to scholarly-creative activity, teaching, and service, bringing honor and recognition to the University.	http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/faculty-a-staff/18-eminant-faculty-award	February 11th	Minimum of five years at Oklahoma State University and currently active (e.g., the winner must have been continuously employed in a tenured or tenure-track position at OSU for at least five full academic years).

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
Society for Nutrition Education & Behavior Mid-Career Award	The mid-career award is presented to recognize an SNEB member in "mid-career" regarding his/her professional accomplishments in the field of nutrition education and for significant contribution to the mission of SNEB.	http://www.sneb.org/about/awards.html	February 14th	Nominators must be a current SNEB member in any membership category. Nominees must have between 10-19 years of professional member status for at least 5 years; professional accomplishments in the field of nutrition education; and significant contribution to SNEB.
Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior (SNEB)/SNEB Foundation Helen Denning Ullrich Award of Excellence in Nutrition Education	The Helen Denning Ullrich Annual Award of Excellence in Nutrition Education will be given to acknowledge outstanding career achievement in the field of nutrition education. It recognizes the culmination (or near culmination) of a member's career.	http://www.sneb.org/about/awards.html	February 14th	Nominators must be a current SNEB member in any membership category. Recipients must currently be a member of SNEB, have been a professional member of SNEB for at least 10 years and have worked in the field at least 20 years; have a record of outstanding achievement in the field of nutrition education and promotion and made acknowledged contributions to the field; and have a record of service to SNEB.
Continued Excellence Award	The award recognizes NEAFCS members who have previously received the Distinguished Service Award and continue to be actively involved in professional improvement programs, the promotion of professional development of others, and leadership.	www.neafcs.org	February 15th	Applicant must have been a member of NEAFCS for at least 12 years, including the current year. Applicant must have received the NEAFCS Distinguished Service Award prior to the current year. Applicant must have attended at least three (3) NEAFCS Annual Sessions. This award can be received only once. Applicant must be actively involved in a professional improvement program.
Distinguished Service Award		www.neafcs.org	February 15th	Minimum of 10 years NEAFCS membership. Applicant must have attended at least two (2) NEAFCS Annual Sessions. Evidence of superior accomplishments, including evidence of impact. Award can be received only once.
Extension Educator of the Year		www.neafcs.org	February 15th	Persons who are current members of NEAFCS and have previously received the Distinguished Service Award and the Continued Excellence Award. Member of NEAFCS for at least 12 years. Applicant is actively involved in professional improvement. Applicant must have a well-planned educational program with results and accomplishments. Applicant shows leadership in professional associations. Applicant has attended at least four (4) NEAFCS Annual Sessions. This award can be received only once. A display at the Showcase of Excellence is required at Annual Conference the year the award is received to showcase an outstanding program of the recipient.
Priester Awards	The Jeanne M. Priester Award honors the accomplishments and contributions of Jeanne M. Priester to the Cooperative Extension System. Ms. Priester was a leader in advancing health education within the Cooperative Extension Service during her tenure at the United States Department of Agriculture. The purpose of the award is to honor Extension programs that positively impact the health of people across the United States and provide leadership to expand Extension's capacity to increase the number of Americans who are healthy at every stage of life. The Priester Award will recognize sound and innovative health and wellness programs at the county, state and national level.	https://extension.umd.edu/nhoc/priester-awards-now-open-0	January 15th	Nominations will be accepted in five award categories. 1. Individual or Family 2. Community 3. Innovative 4. Leadership 5. Organizational Details on each category can be found through the link.
Informal Research and Study		http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th
OEAFCs Past Presidents Award - Award to attend National Meeting	To encourage participation at the annual meeting of National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) to enhance personal, professional, and program development.	http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	Must be a member of OEAFCs. Must plan to attend the National Meeting the year receiving the award.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
OEAFCs Scholarship - Professional Improvement Award	Scholarship must be used for professional improvement.	http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	Applicant must be a current member of the Oklahoma Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences for the year they are receiving the award.
Para Professional Award	To recognize outstanding accomplishments of Para-Professionals in Extension Family and Consumer Sciences including youth programs. To encourage the use of imaginative and effective methods to reach special audiences. To promote local, state and national recognition of outstanding service to special audiences through the use of Para-Professionals working with or supervised by Extension Family and Consumer Sciences Educators who are OEAFCs members.	http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	A Para-Professional is an individual who is an employee of the Cooperative Extension Service and works under the supervision of Extension professionals. The Para-Professional must have been employed at least two years or the part-time equivalent of two years in present position and be working with or supervised by an Extension Family and Consumer Sciences Educator who is a member of OEAFCs. The award winner is only eligible to win this award once.
Barbara Tricenella - Family Resiliency Program Award	This award is given to Extension Family and Consumer Sciences Educator/s who have achieved impact through the Family and Consumer Science Program in the area of Family Resiliency. The program should be related to families, child development, childcare, parenting, step-parenting, grand-parenting, family communication, character education, or other topics that help individuals and families improve their quality of life.	http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	Application may be submitted by an individual or a team (entries from impact teams are ineligible). Program must have been successfully used by the applicant prior to applying.
Cleo Bryan Award - Nominated and Selected by the State Board	To identify and recognize a member of the Oklahoma Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences for Outstanding service to the Association. To stimulate and encourage professional improvement.	http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	Have been a member of OEAFCs for a minimum of 5 years with additional credit being given for each additional year of service, and is currently participating in the program activities of the Association. Have a record that shows service to the Association. Show evidence of professional growth. Display evidence of a professional attitude toward the Association and the Extension Service. A member may receive the Cleo Bryan Scholarship only one time. The award shall be used for professional improvement – graduate study, study in another or state, attendance at NEAFCS, etc.
Friend of Extension		http://oeafcs.okstate.edu/oeafcs-awards	January 15th	Provide support to extension.
Purpose Prize	The Purpose Prize®, now in its seventh year, is the nation's only large-scale investment in people over 60 who are combining their passion and experience for social good.	http://www.encore.org/prize	January 24th	At least 60 years old by the nomination deadline. Started the work for which he or she is nominated at the age of 50 or later. Currently addressing a major social problem in the second half of life (in what is often called an encore career). A legal U.S. resident or a U.S. citizen living abroad (residents of U.S. territories are also eligible). Not an elected official.
Ernest L. Boyer International Award For Excellence in Teaching, Learning, and Technology	An institution nominating a faculty member for the Award for Innovative Excellence in Teaching, Learning, and Technology may also choose to have its nominee serve as a candidate for the Ernest L. Boyer International Award.	http://www.teachlearn.org/boyer.html	January 9th	Please note that previous Boyer Award winners are ineligible for nomination. Boyer nominees must also be current nominees for the Conference's Award for Innovative Excellence in Teaching, Learning, and Technology or past recipients of that award.
Regents Distinguished Research Award	The Regents Distinguished Research Award (RDRA) recognizes research excellence at Oklahoma State University. The term research includes all creative scholarly activities. Recipients of the award will be selected based on the evidence of outstanding and meritorious achievements in research. The candidates must demonstrate a distinguished record of past and continuing excellence in research, and be clearly recognized nationally and internationally.	http://research.okstate.edu/rdra	March 14th	OSU Faculty

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
National Awards Program for Excellence in College and University Teaching in the Food and Agricultural Sciences	The Awards Program is offered annually to honor excellence in teaching by recognizing faculty from a college or university who both practice and promote effective, innovative teaching. Recipients must exhibit sustained, meritorious and exceptional teaching at the postsecondary level within the food and agricultural sciences. The Awards Program focuses national attention on the role of teaching; fundamental to recruiting and retaining the scientific and professional expertise essential to the future growth and progress of our nation's food and agricultural system.	http://www.nifa.usda.gov/business/other_links/serdteachaward.html	March 15th	Teacher nominees must be employed by a university. A teacher nominee must hold a full-time appointment as an active faculty member as of the nominee submission due date and have responsibility for higher education teaching in an area of the food and agricultural sciences.
Oklahoma State University Alumni Hall of Fame	Induction into the OSU Alumni Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed by the OSU Alumni Association. Given to three alumni annually, it recognizes outstanding lifetime achievement in society and professional life. Honorees are inducted in a ceremony held in early spring. Candidates must be OSU graduates or former students.	http://orangeconnection.org/s/860/index-blue.aspx?sid=860&qid=1&pgid=277	March 15th	OSU Alumni
Oklahoma State University Distinguished Alumni Award	These two awards recognize alumni who attain distinctive success in his or her chosen field or profession, perform outstanding service to their community or both. Service and contributions to the advancement of the University, the OSU Alumni Association or both may be considered. Only persons born in a country other than the United State of America (not including US territories) are eligible for the Distinguished International Alumni Award. Members of the OSU Alumni Association Hall of Fame are not eligible for these awards. The awards are presented each fall.	http://orangeconnection.org/s/860/index-blue.aspx?sid=860&qid=1&pgid=278	March 15th	OSU Alumni
OSU Outstanding Advisor Award	The Outstanding Advisor Award was created by Order of Omega to recognize and celebrate the hard work of local chapter advisors and the contributions they make to the fraternity and sorority community at Oklahoma State University.	http://union.okstate.edu/mgc/Documents/OutstandingAdvisor2013.pdf	March 1st	Local OSU chapter advisors of fraternity/sorority community
Outstanding Graduate Coordinators and Support Staff Award	The OSU Graduate College and Graduate and Professional Student Government Association (GPSGA) announce the Outstanding Graduate Coordinator Award and Outstanding Graduate Support Staff Award to recognize the exemplary service of the faculty and staff who lead and manage graduate programs. Graduate coordinators and their support staff provide an invaluable service to the University and its community of students, faculty, and staff. This award is one of the few opportunities available to recognize the incredible contributions to graduate education made by these individuals.	http://gpsga.okstate.edu/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=29&Item	March 1st	Nominees must have served as graduate coordinator/support staff for a minimum of two years by the award deadline.
Regents Distinguished Teaching Award	To be eligible to receive an award, a full-time member of the faculty must have evidenced unusually significant and meritorious achievement in the instruction of students (graduate and/or undergraduate) for a significant period of years.	http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/faculty-a-staff/51-regents-distinguished-teachin	March 1st	Must be nominated by a student and dean Full-time faculty member at OSU for four or more years (must have completed 4th year) Hold rank as a tenure track Assistant Professor or above Devote a significant amount of assigned duties to teaching for the past four years An individual can receive this award no more than twice during his/her tenure at OSU Must be nominated by a student and dean Full-time faculty member at OSU for four or more years (must have completed 4th year) Hold rank as a tenure track Assistant Professor or above Devote a significant amount of assigned duties to teaching for the past four years An individual can receive this award no more than twice during his/her tenure at OSU
Czaplewski Fellowship Award (mid-career move into administration)	Its purpose is to provide funding to support the efforts of family scholars who want to obtain and make mid-career moves into administration.	http://www.ncfr.org/awards	May 1st	The applicant must have: a minimum of a master's degree or equivalent, and five years of experience in teaching, community service work, or other practice in the family field area, or related area (academic teaching, early childhood education, social work, counseling, therapy, health service delivery, etc.); been an active member of NCFR for at least three years; and demonstrated desire and interest in a career change to either non-profit association management or administration or academic administration.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
Margaret E. Arcus Outstanding Family Life Educator Award	The award is meant to: encourage that tradition of excellence and scholarship in family life education by recognizing family life education scholars and practitioners who advance the field of family life education and increase the visibility and credibility of family life education scholarship and practice.	http://www.ncfr.org/awards	May 1st - Even years	The award is given to an individual or a small group of collaborators. They may be an early, mid or late career professionals. Membership in NCFR or the Education and Enrichment (EE) Section is not required. To qualify, the nominee should have made significant contributions to the field of family life education through research, theory, publication, practice, program development, and/or training of professional.
APLU - Food Systems Leadership Award	The Association for Public Land-grant Universities (APLU) Food Systems Leadership Award annually recognizes a leader who has made an extraordinary impact on the food system through leadership and service and who exemplifies the core principles established by the Food Systems Leadership Institute (FSLI), including personal leadership, organizational leadership and food systems leadership. The award also recognizes the leadership, innovation, engagement and service that APLU promotes through its programs.	http://www.aplu.org/	May 21st	A nominee must: 1. Be a leader who has impacted the food system 2. Exemplify the Core Principles established by FSLI: a. articulating a broad, integrated food systems perspective focused on healthy humans, environments, communities and/or economies b. engaging diverse constituencies to focus on major food system challenges, issues and opportunities c. influencing values, goals and strategic directions related to food systems d. advocating for change within the food system
Board of Human Sciences - Ellen Swallow Richards Public Service Award	The purpose of the Board on Human Sciences Ellen Swallow Richards Public Service Award is to honor a nationally recognized leader who has a significant history of promoting and advancing the Human Sciences. It is likely that the nominees for the BoHS Ellen Swallow Richards Public Service Award will be individuals who have supported higher education, and especially the mission of the Human Sciences and other programs in land-grant settings. Although nominees may be Human Science scholars, it is not required. This award is intended to recognize an outstanding leader who helps advance the Human Sciences. This award is named in honor of Ellen Swallow Richards, who dedicated her life to applying research to enhance the well-being of individuals, families, and communities	http://www.thebohs.org/awards0.aspx	May 21st	Leaders who have earned recognition as advocates for the Human Sciences are eligible to be nominated for the award. Each BoHS member unit (college or university) is eligible to submit one nominee each year. Nominators shall compile a letter of nomination with a rationale for the candidate to be considered for the Public Service Award. Former recipients of the Public Service Award are ineligible for this award. The award will be presented at a special breakfast hosted by the Board on Human Sciences at the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities' annual meeting. The award winner must be available to attend the meeting and speak to the organization. BOHS will provide travel expenses and appropriate recognition.
Board of Human Sciences - Outstanding Engagement Award	The Purpose of the Board on Human Sciences Outstanding Engagement Award is to recognize an individual "campus based" or "state level faculty member" for exceptional creativity and scholarship in the development, application, and evaluation of outreach, extension, and public service programs.	http://www.thebohs.org/awards0.aspx	May 21st	Eligibility for the Outstanding Engagement Award shall be limited to faculty members who have been employed in a BoHS member institution for at least three (3) years. The nominee must have at least 30 percent of their EFT/FTE dedicated to public service, outreach and/or extension programs (Administrative appointments in these areas do not qualify a nominee). Each college and university with active BoHS membership is eligible to nominate one person for this outreach award. Former recipients of the Outstanding Engagement Award are ineligible for this award. The award will be presented at the annual meeting of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities in November. The award winner must be able to attend the meeting and speak to the organization. BOHS will provide travel expenses and appropriate recognition including an honorarium.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
Board of Human Sciences - Undergraduate Research Mentor Award	The purpose of the Board on Human Sciences Undergraduate Research Mentor Award is to recognize a faculty member in the Human Sciences for exceptional performance as a research mentor for undergraduate students. This award was developed to advance the purposes of the Undergraduate Research Community in the Human Sciences (www.kon.org/urc/undergrad_research.html). The Undergraduate Research Community focuses on the scholarship of learning and teaching in preparing students for graduate education, the workplace and responsible citizenship. It enhances the experimental content of undergraduate education in the Human Sciences. The BoHS Undergraduate Research Mentor Award is intended to advance undergraduate student development and a national undergraduate research agenda for the Human Sciences. Award recipients will be recognized for their contribution in developing the next generation of scholars	http://www.thebohs.org/awards0.aspx	May 21st	Eligibility for the Undergraduate Research Mentor Award shall be limited to Human Sciences faculty members who have been employed in a BoHS member institution for at least three (3) years. Each college and university with active BoHS membership is eligible to nominate one person for this outreach award. Former recipients of the Undergraduate Research Mentor Award are ineligible for this award. The award will be presented at a special breakfast hosted by the Board on Human Sciences at the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities' annual meeting. The award winner must be available to attend the meeting and speak to the organization. BOHS will provide travel expenses and appropriate recognition.
Felix Berardo Scholarship Award for Mentoring (excellence in mentoring one or more junior colleagues)	The award recognizes an NCFR member whose work has been noted for excellence in mentoring one or more junior colleagues.	http://www.ncfr.org/awards	May 22nd	The recipient must be a member of NCFR at the time of nomination and receipt of the award. Self-nominations are not accepted although nominees must be willing to be nominated. The mentoring work may be a part of the nominee's job description, but it must exceed the level of the typical performance of the nominee's position. The nominated mentor and nominating mentee must not be relatives.
College of Human Sciences Meaningful and Much appreciated (M&M) awards	Acknowledge Human Sciences staff who do something "Meaningful and Much Appreciated."		No close date	Human Sciences Staff
Leave the Ladder Down Award	This award is presented to a faculty member and a staff member who have successfully mentored and encouraged those with whom he/she works or instructs to reach their fullest potential.		November 1st	OSU Employee
Robert Foster Cherry Award for Great Teaching	The Cherry Award program is designed to honor great teachers, to stimulate discussion in the academy about the value of teaching, and to encourage departments and institutions to value their own great teachers.	http://www.baylor.edu/cherry_awards/	November 1st	Outstanding professors in the English-speaking world who are distinguished for their ability to communicate as classroom teachers. Individuals nominated for the award should have a proven record as an extraordinary teacher with a positive, inspiring, and long-lasting effect on students, along with a record of distinguished scholarship.
College of Human Sciences STAR Awards	Acknowledge Human Sciences staff who provide Service, Teamwork, Attitude, and Responsibility		November annually	Human Sciences Staff
Outstanding First-Year Student Advocates	Each year, presidents of American higher education institutions are invited to nominate one educator on their campus for this award that are doing exceptional work in the areas of student learning, development and success. A national panel of distinguished educators reviews the nomination portfolios and select 10 individuals as the nation's Outstanding First-Year Student Advocates.	http://www.sc.edu/fye/awards/advocates/	October 13th	Individuals on the nation's campuses who are Outstanding First-Year Student Advocates involved in high-impact practices for first-year student success.
OSU Honorary Degrees	Institutions in the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education are authorized to confer honorary degrees granted by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. Oklahoma State University typically awards an honorary doctoral degree in recognition of a career of extraordinary accomplishment that has benefited society through intellectual, artistic, scientific, professional, or public service contributions. In many cases, a candidate may be best known for a single achievement; but an honorary degree is not given to celebrate a deed alone or upon simply meeting a set of minimum standards.	https://stillwater.sharepoint.okstate.edu/Policies/Shared%20Documents/Awarding%20	October 15th
Fellows	The Fellows Committee of the American Society for Nutrition invites nominations for Fellows. Scientists who have had distinguished careers in nutrition and are at least sixty-five years of age are eligible for nomination. Membership in the Society is not a requirement for eligibility. Nominations may be made by any active or emeritus member of the Society.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	October 1st

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
OSU Regents Professor	The position of Regents Professor is the most prestigious position that may be attained in recognition of scholarly accomplishments by faculty on the campus of Oklahoma State University. The position recognizes the few select faculty who have made unique contributions in several areas including research, artistic performance, creativity, teaching, and extension, to note only a few. The Regents Professor must demonstrate a distinguished record of nationally recognized excellence and scholarship in his/her discipline.	http://regentsprofessors.okstate.edu/	October 1st	OSU Faculty
Karin and Robert Sternberg Award for Excellence in Advancement of the Land-Grant Mission	The purpose of this award is to recognize OSU employees (both Faculty and Staff) whose exemplary contributions promote the land-grant mission of Oklahoma State University.	http://spears.okstate.edu/news/files/Sternberg-Award-for-Excellence2.pdf	October 31st	Nominees must be full-time, regular continuous employees at OSU-Stillwater campus. Nominees must be employed by OSU a minimum of 12 months as of the nomination deadline. Nominees must not have received the Sternberg award within the past five years.
Cindy Winter Scholarship Award (new professional/outstanding leadership in Family Studies	It honors a student or new professional who has demonstrated outstanding leadership/service in the discipline of family studies	http://www.ncfr.org/awards	Odd years - May 1st	The applicant must be a student or new professional who: has been an NCFR member for a minimum of one year; shows potential for leadership excellence within NCFR; and demonstrates leadership in organizing conferences or organizations (e.g., professional workshop, graduate student conference, department student organization, etc.); giving presentations/workshops at national, state, local, and departmental conferences; and sustaining membership in national, state, local, and department organizations that focus on promoting the discipline of family studies.
Conrad Elvehjem Award for Public Service in Nutrition	Given in recognition of scientific and distinguished service to the public through the science of nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Dannon Institute Mentorship Award	Given for outstanding mentorship in the development of successful nutritional research science investigators.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th	Nutrition educator who has demonstrated outstanding mentoring qualities by developing successful investigators of nutritional sciences
Champion of Health	The Champions of Health program honors and supports those people and organizations that are working to improve Oklahoma's health and the program holds them as examples so others can follow their lead. Working together, we can improve the health of Oklahoma.	http://www.championsofhealth.org/nominations_requirements.html	May 28th
David Kritchevsky Outstanding Nutrition Career Award	Presented in recognition of an outstanding career in nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Distinguished Service Awards	The Staff Advisory Distinguished Service Award is a way to appreciate staff members for their merits at OSU. This award allows other staff members to nominate someone who goes beyond the call of duty, enhances ones career and person path and represents OSU in a positive aspect.	http://sac.okstate.edu/staff-awards-and-recognition-day	September 15th	OSU Staff
E.L.R. Stokstad Award	Given for outstanding fundamental research in nutrition, with preference to scientists at relatively early stages in their careers.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
E.V. McCollum Award	Given to a clinical investigator who is perceived currently as a major creative force, actively generating new concepts in nutrition and personally seeing to the execution of studies testing the validity of these concepts.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Excellence in Nutrition Education Award	Given for outstanding contributions to teaching nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
General Mills Bell Institute of Health and Nutrition – Innovation Award	Given to an investigator whose scientific contributions advance the understanding of the health benefits of whole grain. Eligible recipients are conducting mechanistic, epidemiological, clinical, translational, in vitro and/or ex vivo research contributing to knowledge of the health benefits of cereal grains and grain components.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Gilbert A. Leveille Lectureship and Award	This award recognizes outstanding research in nutrition science and food technology.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Kellogg Prize in International Nutrition Research	Given to a member of ASN's International Nutrition Council actively engaged in research to benefit populations in non-industrialized countries, as demonstrated through publications in the scientific literature, and actively engaged in training new scientists for international nutrition research.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Mary Swartz Rose Junior Investigator Award	Given to an investigator within ten years of postgraduate training on the safety and efficacy of bioactive compounds for human health.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Mary Swartz Rose Senior Investigator Award	This award is given to an investigator for outstanding research on the safety and efficacy of bioactive compounds for human health.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
McCormick Science Institute Research Award	Presented to an investigator conducting clinical, translational, in vitro and/or ex vivo research, whose scientific contributions have advanced the understanding of the potential health benefits of culinary herbs and spices.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Mead Johnson Award	Given to an investigator for a single outstanding piece of nutrition research or a series of papers in the same subject accomplished within 10 years of completing postgraduate training.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Milton L. Sunde Award	Given for publication in The Journal of Nutrition of outstanding experimental, applied or fundamental research in nutrition that uses an avian species.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Norman Kretschmer Memorial Award	Presented to a young investigator, 45 years old or younger at the time of the presentation, for a substantial body of independent research in nutrition and development with potential relevance to improving children's health.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Nutrition Science Media Award	Given for consistent, accurate nutrition science reporting for a general audience over the last year. The award honors an individual (rather than institutions or employers) for his or her achievements in nutrition science journalism. The winning journalist will have helped to foster the public's understanding and appreciation of current nutrition issues based on science.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Osborne and Mendel Award	Given in recognition of outstanding recent basic research in nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Peter J. Reeds Memorial Young Investigator Award	This award is given for outstanding research in macronutrient metabolism accomplished within 5 years of completing formal training of either Ph.D. degree or postdoctoral fellowship. In the case of M.D. candidates eligibility includes time of completing residency training or postdoctoral fellowship.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Pfizer Consumer Healthcare Nutritional Sciences Award	Given in recognition of recent investigative contributions of significance to the basic understanding of human nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Physician Nutrition Specialist Award	The Physician Nutrition Specialist Award provides a $30,000 salary stipend to support the educational role of an academic physician who is focusing his/her career in nutrition. The award can be renewed competitively for a second year, contingent on demonstrated progress during the first year and on availability of funds.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Robert H. Herman Memorial Award	Given each year to a clinical investigator whose research work has contributed importantly to the advancement of clinical nutrition, particularly the biochemical and metabolic aspects of human nutrition.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
Roland L. Weinsier Award for Excellence in Medical/Dental Nutrition Education	Presented in recognition of an outstanding career in medical/dental nutrition education and that includes innovations in medical/dental education.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
Samuel J. Fomon Young Physician Award	This award is given to a physician within ten years of completion of medical postdoctoral training, for outstanding work in the general area of pediatric nutrition, infant growth or body composition. As the award honors Dr. Fomon, preclinical and/or clinical research that contributes to medical applications or produces impacts upon the practice of infant feeding will be recognized.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
The E. V. McCollum International Lectureship in Nutrition	The E. V. McCollum International Lectureship in Nutrition provides a means to encourage sound advancements in nutritional science and their application for improving the health and well-being of people worldwide and to commemorate the life and contributions of E. V. McCollum. An outstanding nutritionist is invited to deliver two lectures on a topic consistent with the purpose of the lectureship in locations that will assure a large and broad audience. The lecturer serves a two-year term. Generally, one lecture is given in the first year at ASN's Scientific Sessions & Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology and one lecture is given in the second year at an international venue.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
The Stevenson W. Fletcher Achievement Award	The Stevenson W. Fletcher Achievement Award recognizes an individual educator or trainer for outstanding achievement in contributing innovative ideas, methods or programs that have advanced teaching, learning or practice in the field of hospitality and tourism education. The award recipient must demonstrate exceptional professional ability and/or commitment through service to ICHRIE and/or to the hospitality industry and education. This award, formerly called the ICHRIE Achievement Award, was renamed in 1994 to honor Stevenson W. Fletcher, former program head of Hotel, Restaurant and Travel Administration at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx	September 15th	Nominee must be an International CHRIE member at the time of nomination and receipt of the award. Educator or trainer. Service to International CHRIE and/or service to hospitality education and the industry.
Vernon R. Young International Award for Amino Acid Research	Given to an investigator for a single outstanding piece of research or for a series of papers in a related area of amino acid metabolism completed early in their career (usually interpreted as within ten years of postgraduate training).	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th
CIDA Award for Excellence	The CIDA Board of Directors believes that recognizing excellence in interior design education is an important activity that supports the advancement of educational quality. CIDA's goal with the award is to join the wide array of efforts underway throughout higher education and the professional organizations to collect and share information about successful methodology and approaches to interior design education.	http://accredit-id.org/awards/cida-award-for-excellence/	September 15th	The Award for Excellence competition is open to faculty members and collaborating teams at CIDA-accredited interior design programs.
Bio-Serv Award	Given for meritorious research in nutrition using experimental animals as models by an investigator who received the doctoral degree in the 10 years preceding the month the award is presented.	http://www.nutrition.org/about-asn/awards/	September 15th	The work recognized must involve the nutrition of experimental animals used as models.
Bradford Wiley Memorial Best Paper of the Year Research Award		http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx		Paper must be nominated by at least three International CHRIE members.
Howard B. Meek Award	The Howard B. Meek Award is the highest individual recognition a member of ICHRIE may receive. It is presented to an ICHRIE member in recognition of the individual's lifetime contributions and outstanding service both to hospitality education and to International CHRIE. This award serves as a living memorial to the late Howard B. Meek, a pioneer in American hospitality education, the first dean of the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University and an Executive Vice President of ICHRIE.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx		Nominee must be an International CHRIE member at the time of nomination and receipt of the award. Outstanding service both to hospitality education and to International CHRIE. Person must have had a meaningful leadership role in International CHRIE but not does not need to have been a member of the Board of Directors.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
IBMS D. Harold Copp Award	For outstanding achievements by an IBMS member in basic research in the fields of bone and mineral metabolism that have led to significant changes in understanding of physiology or disease.	http://www.ibmsonline.org/p/cm/ld/fid=11
IBMS Gideon and Sevgi Rodan Fellowship	This special fellowship honors the service of two outstanding individuals in the field of bone and mineral research. It is given annually to a young investigator in the bone and mineral field.	http://www.ibmsonline.org/p/cm/ld/fid=11
IBMS Herbert A. Fleisch Award	In honor of the active IBMS Member, the late Herbert Fleisch, this award recognizes the outstanding achievement by an IBMS Member aged 45 years or younger (by December 31 of the year the award is presented) in the field of bone and mineral research.	http://www.ibmsonline.org/p/cm/ld/fid=11
IBMS John G. Haddad, Jr. Award	For outstanding contributions by an IBMS member to clinical research in bone and mineral metabolism, that have led to significant changes in understanding of physiology or disease, or to changes in disease management or prevention.	http://www.ibmsonline.org/p/cm/ld/fid=11
IBMS Pieter Gaillard Founders Award	In recognition of outstanding contributions, research, leadership, and dedication to the International Bone & Mineral Society and the field of bone and mineral research.	http://www.ibmsonline.org/p/cm/ld/fid=11
John Wiley & Sons Award for Innovation in Teaching	The John Wiley & Sons Award for Innovation in Teaching recognizes an International CHRIE member for the individual's implementation of innovative, creative, and effective teaching techniques in hospitality education at the high school, diploma, and college or university level.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx
John Wiley & Sons Lifetime Research Achievement Award	The John Wiley & Sons Lifetime Research Achievement Award recognizes an ICHRIE member for lifetime contributions to outstanding scholarship and research in hospitality and tourism. The award is given to an International CHRIE member who has made and continues to make significant contributions to the field of hospitality and tourism through scholarly research published in hospitality and non-hospitality journals over an extended period. It serves as a tribute for a distinguished individual who has demonstrated both leadership in a specialized field of study and high standards in the systematic and objective analysis of data that has led to a significant contribution to the body of knowledge.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Normally a nomination by at least three members of International CHRIE. • An established track record of scholarly work published in refereed hospitality and non-hospitality academic journals. • A research focus that establishes the individual as an authority/expert in the chosen field of research. • Tenured faculty member with associate professor or full professor rank at a reputable institution of higher education. • Record of service as a mentor for several graduate students or untenured faculty members. • A member of International CHRIE for at least 5 years. • A record of active participation with International CHRIE. • At least 10 years of active research / teaching experience beyond the terminal degree.
McCool Breakthrough Award	This is an award to honor the spirit of Willie McCool. This award will be given to an individual, group, program, school, college, association, or corporation that has made a significant break through or introduced a unique approach in the spirit of ICHRIE's mission. The award recognizes an event, activity, or program in the spirit of Willie McCool, a dedicated and successful astronaut and son of Audrey and Barry McCool, faculty members at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx		The event, activity, program paper must represent a noteworthy breakthrough or new way of doing things and demonstrate a significant improvement or change over regular operations. The person, group, program, school, college, association, or corporation must be nominated by an International CHRIE member but does not need to be an International CHRIE member.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
Raphael Kavanaugh Champion of Education Award	This unique award is given by the International CHRIE Board of Directors—upon special occasion—to honor a corporation, organization, or individual who has made a long standing commitment to, or shown a pattern of support for, special initiatives that advance the mission of ICHRIE.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx
The Chef Herman Breithaupt Award	The Chef Herman Breithaupt Award honors the memory of a pioneer in culinary education by recognizing outstanding achievement and contributions to foodservice education by a chef/educator. The recipient of this award must exhibit high professionalism, demonstrate a strong commitment to hospitality education, and have a record of contributions to International CHRIE and the industry as a chef/educator.	http://www.chrie.org/about/awards/index.aspx		Nominee must be an International CHRIE member at the time of nomination and receipt of the award. Nominee must be a Chef/educator who is a teacher or trainer in foodservice.
NACADA Region Excellence in Advising Award	These awards recognize individuals who demonstrate qualities and practices that make significant contributions to the improvement of academic advising. Winners will receive complimentary registration to their region conference.	http://www.nacada.ksu.edu/Community/Regions/Region-7/Apply-for-Awards.aspx	Nov. 1st	Applicants/Nominees must be members of NACADA (except Administrators) and may only apply in their own region. Individuals may self-nominate. Applicants should plan to attend their spring Region conference and have support of their office/department. Applicants must have worked in the advising profession for a minimum of one year, prior to Jan 1 of current year.
NACADA Annual Advising Awards	A variety of awards, scholarships and grants are offered to NACADA members and others who have demonstrated excellence in advising, faculty advising, academic advising administration, leadership in the field, and graduate student accomplishments.	https://www.nacada.ksu.edu/Events-Programs/Awards.aspx	March 10th
Ralph Powe Jr. Faculty Enhancement Award	This award prides seed money for research by junior faculty at ORAU member institutions. These awards are intended to enrich the research and professional growth of young faculty and result in new funding opportunities.	http://www.orau.org/university-partnerships/faculty-student-programs/powe/default	Jan 11th	Full-time assistant professors at ORAU member institutions within two years of their tenure track appointment at the time of application are eligible.
NCAIED Awards	This prestigious award recognizes 40 emerging American Indian leaders from across Indian Country who have demonstrated leadership, initiative, and dedication and made significant contributions in business and/or in their community.	http://awards.ncaied.org/40-under-40-awards/
New York Life Foundation's Higher Education Civic Engagement Award	This award is presented to several colleges and universities every year by The Washington Center. University winners in the past have been given access to $20,000 in scholarships to help four (4) students participate in The Washington Center's internship program during the calendar year after they receive the award. This scholarship is applicable to The Washington Center's housing and/or program fees, or in some cases students' own tuition at their home university. Students attending schools who have won this award in the past will occasionally be selected to receive a smaller New York Life Higher Education Civic Engagement scholarship, in the amount of anywhere from $500 - $4,000.	www.twc.edu
Lynton Early Faculty Award	The annual Ernest A. Lynton Award for the Scholarship of Engagement for Early Career Faculty recognizes a faculty member who connects his or her teaching, research, and service to community engagement. The Lynton Award emphasizes engaged scholarly work across the faculty roles. The scholarship of engagement represents an integrated view of the faculty role in which teaching, research, and service overlap and are mutually reinforcing, is characterized by scholarly work tied to a faculty member's expertise, is of benefit to the external community, is visible and shared with community stakeholders, and reflects the mission of the institution.	http://nerche.org/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=375&Itemid=68	April 8th	The Lynton Award is designated as an award for early career faculty who are pre-tenure at tenure-granting campuses or early career—within the first six years—at campuses with long-term contracts.

AWARD TITLE	DESCRIPTION	LINK	CLOSE DATE	ELIGIBILITY
The Thomas Ehrlich Civically Engaged Faculty Award	The Thomas Ehrlich Civically Engaged Faculty Award recognizes one senior faculty member (post-tenure or middle-to-late career at institutions without tenure) each year. Honorees (who must be affiliated with a Campus Compact member institution) are recognized for exemplary engaged scholarship, including leadership in advancing students' civic learning, conducting community-based research, fostering reciprocal community partnerships, building institutional commitments to service-learning and civic engagement, and other means of enhancing higher education's contributions to the public good. The award — previously known as the Thomas Ehrlich Faculty Award for Service-Learning — is named in honor of Thomas Ehrlich, former chair of the Campus Compact board of directors and president emeritus of Indiana University.	http://compact.org/initiatives/awards-programs/the-thomas-ehrllich-civically-engaged-faculty		Applicants must be affiliated with a Campus Compact member institution. They must also be a senior faculty member (post-tenure or middle-to-late career at institutions without tenure) appointment.
President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll	The President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, launched in 2006, annually highlights the role colleges and universities play in solving community problems and placing more students on a lifelong path of civic engagement by recognizing institutions that achieve meaningful, measureable outcomes in the communities they serve.	http://www.nationalservice.gov/special-initiatives/honor-roll	May
New York Life Higher Education Civic Engagement Award	The Washington Center's New York Life Higher Education Civic Engagement Awards recognize institutions achieving breadth and depth of civic engagement through sustained and mutually transformational partnerships that define and address issues of public concern at any level from the local to the global	http://www.twc.edu/partnerships/colleges-universities/awards/civic-engagement-awards
Community-University Engagement Awards	Since 2006, the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) and the Engagement Scholarship Consortium (ESC), with support from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, have partnered to recognize the outstanding community-university engagement scholarship work of four-year public universities. The Community-University Engagement Awards Program recognizes colleges and universities that have redesigned their learning, discovery, and engagement missions to become even more involved with their communities.	http://www.aplu.org/projects-and-initiatives/economic-development-and-community-engage
RWJF-CCPH Annual Award	Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) is proud to announce a partnership with the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) to award the RWJF-CCPH Award. The RWJF-CCPH Award will highlight the power and potential of community-campus partnerships successfully using systems and policy change needed to overcome the root causes of health, social, environmental and economic inequalities. The award recognizes two "Key Leaders" or key individuals (one community member and one academic partner) who spearheaded the success to the field in the area of exemplary partnerships between communities and academic institutions that are striving to achieve health equity and social justice.	https://ccph.memberclicks.net/rwjf-ccph-award	March 15th	Key Leaders need not be with partnerships that are members of CCPH. The RWJF-CCPH Award is open only to individuals who are (a) citizens or legal residents of the United States