

HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION NAME CHANGE

1935 Oklahoma State Home Demonstration Council organized July 24, 1935 in Stillwater during Farmers' Week. Purpose: To strengthen and unify county groups.

1944 Oklahoma joined National Home Demonstration Council, Inc.

1965 Changed name to National and Oklahoma Extension Homemakers Council. Town and Country State Home Demonstration Council joined together with Oklahoma State Home Demonstration Council.

1992 Changed name to Oklahoma Association for Family and Community Education (FCE). National to National Association for Family and Community Education (NAFCE).

2000 Oklahoma disaffiliated with NAFCE and changed name to Oklahoma Home and Community Education, Inc.

